

"THE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS"

By
MUSA

In The Museum of Fine Arts of Life,
I find myself pacing leisurely with eyes gravitate toward
The Portraits adorned in the gallery.
Upon closer examination, I began to appreciate
The purpose for its artful existence.
On canvas without Shade, the beauty in the colors of life
Would cease to exist.
Shade not only adds depth and dimension,
But also it highlights its surrounding colors,
Making the ambience of life more vibrant and appealing
To the eyes of those who see beauty born from
The womb of struggle.
Immerse in Monet's or immerse in Rembrandt's,
Or immerse in the masterpiece that
Stands in front of the mirror.
It's poetry in motion at its finest,
To the eyes of those who appreciate
Arts.
